

My understanding is that the Mayor is now taking his own advice concerning potential libel action against you.

Whilst your stated views are not specifically directed at the Council, your remarks are of concern to the Council given that people may perceive implied criticism of the authority as a whole and the work of the community organisations it supports. I am therefore again requesting that you remove from your blog the remarks identified above.

Yours sincerely

Mark Norman
Interim Monitoring Officer